Greatest Improvement of the Age.

The Good Samaritan!

VENTILATED OVEN.

COOKING STOVE!

We are sole AGENTS for BANGOR and vicinity for the celebrated Cooking Stove,

GOOD SAMARITAN

THIS STOVE was patented by Messrs Rathbone & Co of Albany July 19 1859 and although but little more than a year has expired since it was first operated its many wonderful feats in cooking have already placed it far in advance of any other Stove which has as yet been offered to a discriminating public We claim for the Good Samaritan that its economy of fuel its simplicity of arrangement and real practical utility of the conveniences which surround it have placed it far in advance of any stove yet offered to the world We will name a few of the advantages which it possesses over any other stove as well as some of the conveniences which attend it

1 It has greater weight of metal than other stoves weighing from 100 to 150 pounds

2 Greater capacity for baking It has a very large oven, and all conveniences for baking, on the top of the stove It has also a large front roaster for baking bread pies, &c or roasting meat, and this without danger of contaminating with the same taste the finest delicacies being baked in the oven of the stove, an advantage which no other stove using the roaster possesses

3 Its perfect control of heat The Good Samaritan has a treble draught arrangement which enables the operator to use as little or great a fire as he chooses The advantage which this arrangement gives over any other combination of fuel is, that while a fire may be started in the cellar in from one third to one half less time the operator can after a fire is once started make the draught as small as he pleases even to closing it entirely—thus giving a higher control of the heat

4 It has a soapstone lined oven which will never burn out and consequently will never need replacing Soapstone is used very extensively as a lining for cooking stoves, as it will establish and retain the clean and even effect of intense heat for any length of time

5 Its accommodations for baking are perfect and unequalled It is a splendid arrangement for broiling on the hearth giving a perfect draught through, under and around the broiler and the dampers in the doors fill the stove keeping the coals alive and carrying off all smoke and gases arising from the food—It will also broil very nicely without opening the door the smoke entering the room This accomplished by closing the draught and can only be effected by a perfect draught stove

6 Its arrangement for the ventilation of the oven cannot be excelled It is effected by holes in the front door of the stove through which the fresh air passes after warming against the front plate of the fire chamber (thus becoming heated before entering the oven) thence through the ventilating dampers into the oven of the stove where it rises all according to rising from the food which will naturally rise to be taken over the front oven plate to pass into the fire chamber where they are consumed (thus adding fuel for consumption) and also to the portal draught flue of the chimney

The Good Samaritan has in single year proved itself to be the most economical as well as the most efficient stove of its order The great advantages it possesses therefore should ensure it a ready sale for the kind at once will create a reality of operation which to be fully appreciated must be witnessed to be fully passed over Not who have never examined the stove can fully realize the fact that with a fire in it no longer than half an hour at a time they can bake all the articles of great weight and the small quantity of fuel necessary to operate it—for the less fuel not withstanding the longer a stove will wear

8 That it possesses all the attributes and qualities of a first class stove in the height of perfection

Longer an experiment it has long established fact that it has no equal we therefore propose to demonstrate all unprejudiced persons and so to all whether we might be purchasers to all and see the stove and be convinced of the truth of these statements

We desire every House keeper in Penobscot County to see and we think they will be fully repaid by examining the merits of this wonder of the age Descriptive pamphlets and all information will be cheerfully furnished by us at our store

THE ONLY PREPARATION

THAT HAS

Stood the Test of Years,

And grows more and more popular every day

AND testimonials from hundreds without number, among the most of the highest and gentlemen in all grades of society whose united testimony would read that HEALY'S WONDERFUL HAIR RESTORATIVE will restore to bald and gray and preserve the hair of the youth and age in all its youthful beauty

LETTER WRITER Mich Dec 1 1859

Prof Healy of—I was in Illinois a capital town from that the hair my natural color for twenty years ago can only be accomplished by the disease attended with hard cut of the hair A cousin of mine of Fairbury Illinois has tried your preparation and does not like other dirtiness to obtain stuff to cap another I have been a life to tell truth my age and which has had has suffered extremely from cold This induced me to pay Briggs & Hayes a visit to the last root I have the pleasure of saying that both of the hair restorative about the first of August last I have faithfully followed the directions, and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black hair is growing in all over my head. Feeling confident that another trial will restore it fully and permanently I feel anxious to persuade its use and to institute of me and to purchase any more I would add that I would not be willing to enclose me an order on three agents for a bottle and receive it by self the scripture declaration—the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless

Thy friend SUSANNAH KIRBY

LIVONIER Noble Co Indiana Feb 9 1859

Prof O J Healy—Dear Sir In the latter part of the year 1854 while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York my hair from a cause unknown to me commenced falling off very rapidly so that in the short space of two months I was bald in the top part of my head was almost entirely bereft of its covering and much of the remaining portion upon the sides and back part of my head briefly after became gray so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country but, receiving no assurance from them that my hair could again be restored I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857 your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect Since that time I have used several dollars worth of your Restorative and as a result have a rich coat of very soft black hair which no money can buy

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect

Very respectfully yours A M LATTA,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz large, medium and small The small holds holds 1 2 a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for three dollars per bottle

DISEASE.

AN equal and normal circulation of the blood is health An abnormal that is to say an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood is disease To illustrate—the liver is diseased by stagnation of the blood in that organ Diseases of the Kidneys, inflammation of the Lungs Diseases of the Heart &c &c by the same cause viz Improper Circulation and in the same cause arising all minor forms of disease The first great inquiry necessarily is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men and so many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the enquiry that seem left to this century among its other wonderful increase in knowledge to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life of the Creator and that in him we live and move and have our being we still venture the remark that as the planets move in their spheres and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws so animal life is amenable to a fixed cause which removes or destroy and health the certain effect follows

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood show them to be compounds of iron sulphur and phosphorus

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen

Oxygen brought in contact with a metal evolves or emits electricity

Electricity brought in contact with a muscular fiber causes it to contract

These facts being indisputable we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart The oxygen in the air we breathe coming in contact with the iron in the corpuscles of the blood emits electricity which coming in contact with the heart causes it to contract, and hence the power which expels the blood and sends it tingling, through the remotest arteries. What then are the causes of Consumption, Dropsy Palsy Paralysis, St Vitus Dance, Dispepsia, Epilepsy Fever and Ague, &c, a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron sulphur and phosphorus which causes a deficiency of electricity and consequently an abnormal circulation The blood becomes watery cell and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgic complaints of the liver and kidneys set in in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the elixir vitae we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the red globules and thus the normal circulation Consumptives! Friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded that "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope has been given up Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy give it a trial

An elaborate treatise carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent stamps Blood Food is sold by all druggists or where it cannot be had I will send 6 bottles, free of expense for $5 Price, single bottle, $1 It is put up in 8 oz vials in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers having been done away with—and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

FOR GOVERNOR,

[illegible]

Class Convention

The Republican Democrats of Bradley [illegible] the Universal [illegible] day sent [illegible] to nominate a State [illegible] the next State Legislature [illegible] business [illegible] convention [illegible] aug 7

Democratic County Convention

The Democratic County Convention of Penobscot met pursuant to call at City Hall yesterday and was called to order by Mr O H Hinckley of Hampden when [illegible] Sewall Esq of Orono was [illegible] President and A T C Dolpe of Bangor and [illegible] of Maxfield were appointed Secretaries

On motion of Mr [illegible] committee on credentials was appointed [illegible] of Messrs Crommings of Bangor Porter of Lowell [illegible] and Samuel Jameson of Oldtown

While the Committee was out [illegible] Mr Sewall [illegible] stating that the Convention [illegible] represented the [illegible] of the county [illegible] party has always [illegible] the Government of the Republic the Constitution [illegible] always has filled [illegible] follow and defend the Stars and Stripes [illegible] this war the party has for its [illegible] since the organization of [illegible] peace and Mr Sewall but [illegible] obtained by crushing out rebellion [illegible] so help me God, will consent to lay down our arms to the demands of rebels (Great applause, and cries of Nor [illegible] Nor [illegible] Whoever [illegible] gestor the peace candidate [illegible] Maine goes for submission to rebels, and for aiding and comforting the enemy If we go for peace now, we go for abandoning the noble Union men of the South to the tender mercies of the traitors Are you prepared to do this? (No Never) Are you prepared to abandon your institutions? (No No) If you yield that what then? You say to the rebels and traitors come and dictate your terms! You lay down and permit them to subjugate you You put yourselves forever under the lash of Southern drivers The men who are creeping over the State covered with the slime and filth of treason are asking our people to go for 'peace, and submit to all these things They tell the farmers that the war tax is going to take away their farms, but they know that there will be no war tax upon the people, because Maine has already paid her proportion in the advances made and if laid on this (people) its amount would be scarcely felt They tell the lumbermen the peace will give them higher prices and [illegible] to go for destroying the Government of the country, breaking up the Union and [illegible] ruining the whole people for the sake of a temporary advance of two dollars a thousand in spruce lumber! But the people will not [illegible] If we submit to a dishonorable peace we are all ruined—the country is ruined and [illegible] comes' Mr Sewall continued for some time in this loyal and patriotic course of remark 'If we lose this Government,' said he 'for God's sake what have we left?' "The Republican party," said he, "is constitutionally in power in the nation, and unless we are prepared to involve the country in anarchy, we must sustain the Government, although in the hands of our political opponents. It is not a party but the Government, which we sustain In closing, Mr S. said that James Buchanan, although he had screened traitors around him, was in the end faithful to the country, as shown by his appointment of those loyal men, Dix, Holt and others in his Cabinet The rebellion was made against the country while the Democratic party was in power—before the Republican party came in [illegible] and it is therefore our war, and we must sustain it for that if for no other reason. [illegible]

[illegible] ful that the Republican party has sustained us so well as they have in this war—and they have done well!" (Applause and laughter)

The Committee on Credentials not being ready to report, the Convention adjourned till 2 p m.

AFTERNOON

The Committee on Credentials submitted their report, embracing the names of 106 delegates returned.

The report was accepted.

Mr Porter of Lowell moved that the temporary organization of the Convention be the permanent organization, which was carried unanimously

Mr Simpson of Bangor offered as a test of the sense of the Convention, the following resolution

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that Col CHARLES D JAMESON is the only regularly nominated candidate for Governor of the State, to be supported by the Democratic party at the coming election and that we individually and collectively will give him our support at the polls, and we will use all honorable means to secure his election

The question upon the resolution being taken by rising, it was adopted with only two dissenting votes

On motion of Mr Wilson of Orono, a committee on resolutions was appointed as follows Messrs. Wilson of Orono, T H Garnsey of Bangor, Porter of Lowell, Bates of Lagrange and Daniel Emery of Hampden

Mr Simpson of Bangor said he observed that two persons (Messrs Dearborn of Garland and Jennings of Dexter) had voted against supporting the regular democratic candidate for Governor He therefore moved to strike the names of those gentlemen from the roll of the Convention He was unwilling to retain the Convention with them

Mr Jennings asked if he, (Mr S) considered Col Jameson the regular nominee

Mr S replied that he did, and proceeded to denounce in terms of the strongest indignation the conduct of the secessionists who had first called a State Convention of their own to oppose this 'unholy war,' and then surreptitiously obtained control of the regularly called Convention and nominated a candidate of their own The true regular democracy had nominated Col Jameson The Secessionists had in their convention at Bangor, adopted Mr Dana as their secession candidate

Mr Jennings remarked that he returned in the Augusta Convention because he considered it to be his duty He voted for Mr Dana not believing him to be a disunionist and believed him to be the regular candidate He (Mr J) claimed to be as good a Union man as any man in this Convention He voted for Mr Douglas at the time he had been elected he presented to the ballot would have been overcome If this Convention [illegible] expel him it must stand the responsibility

Mr Wilson of Orono followed with a brief review of the course of the Democrats from the time when they left the Charleston Convention He then said the same man recently went into the Augusta Convention and voted straight up and down against supporting the world supposed wicked rebellion They did so and afterwards went out and nominated Mr Dana So help me God said Mr Wilson, I never will [illegible] man nominated on such a platform While said he they actually HISSED the name of Douglas and I could have got hold of the man who [illegible] would have dragged him out of the convention (Prolonged applause) Mr Wilson [illegible] for the country and for the party [illegible] sustaining the Government

A man who cannot distinguish between a party [illegible] country should be sent to a western school [illegible] in this great [illegible] country to law [illegible] and let [illegible] is for the country and against [illegible] Mr Wilson continued in an eloquent [illegible] Since the commencement of the war [illegible] are endeavoring to force the government to yield to the demands of [illegible] give up forever the Union [illegible] to yield to the [illegible] Mr Wilson [illegible] must fight it out, at [illegible] and turn a dishonorable peace by offering to make any compromise He closed with a glowing tribute to the brave and patriotic Colonel Jameson

Mr Jennings said he believed the gentleman had a wrong impression about the speeches and speeches being made in the Augusta Convention

Mr Wilson— I heard it

Col Porter—I saw the gentleman himself making demonstrations against the Union in that Convention

Mr Jennings denied the truth of the statement

Mr Wilson said he hoped the controversy about the Augusta Convention would not be lengthened It is sufficient to say that it was one of the most disgraceful assemblages which ever met

Col Porter alleged that every Union sentiment expressed in that Convention was hooted and hissed, and that man was one of those who did it They went there surreptitiously to rob us of our rights as they have carried on robbery and fraud ever since they commenced the cause of secession The time will come when the rocks and the hills will be called upon to cover these men

Mr Jennings claimed to be a Union man.

Mr Wilson asked Mr Jennings if he was in favor of war to suppress rebellion

Mr J wanted the country to see if some peace measure could not be adopted by a national convention If not, he would be willing to fight it out

Mr Wilson—Are you in favor of maintaining the government?

Col Emery of Hampden thought the controversy had gone far enough The question is upon the expulsion of the gentlemen named He would ask if Mr J would sustain the nominees of this convention

Mr Jennings said he would He came here prepared to do so.

Mr Simpson asked if he sustained the resolutions of the call of this convention

Mr. J. said he had already sufficiently defined his position.

Mr. Barker of Hermon said the convention [illegible] Colonel Jameson [illegible] declared by his vote that he will not sustain most of the resolutions. And yet he says he comes here to sustain the action of this convention Mr B thought he ought not to be allowed to take part in the subsequent proceedings, as he has already repudiated its action.

Mr J said he would sustain the nominations of this convention, but did not specially mention the nomination of Col Jameson

Mr Simpson asked if he would abide by the resolution just passed, (adopting Col Jameson's nomination)

Mr J would inquire if he had not fully explained his position. He had kept nothing back

Mr Wilson—With the understanding that Mr J would abide by the action of the Convention in toto, he would move to lay the motion of expulsion on the table, and (Mr Jennings not repeating that construction) the motion was carried

A committee to nominate a County Committee was then appointed, viz Messrs. Bennoch of Orono, Walker of Bangor, Jones of Lincoln, Barker of Stetson, and Jennings of Dexter

The County Committee, as reported by the committee, and adopted, is the same as last year, viz A M Roberts of Bangor, Joseph W Eaton of Plymouth, Thomas B Kingsbury of Bradford, Daniel Lord of Lowell, O H Hinckley of Hampden

A committee of three was chosen to receive and count the votes for candidate for Senator from the central part of the county, who reported as follows

Whole number,	78
John A Peters,	65
Hastings Strickland,	9
S H Blake,
Charles P Stetson,	1

On motion of Mr Simpson of Bangor, Col Porter of Lowell was nominated by acclamation as candidate for Senator from the up-river district

Col Porter declined, and the name of Alvin Haynes of Mattawamkeag, was substituted

On motion of Mr Barker of Stetson George Crockett of Stetson, was nominated by acclamation as Senatorial candidate for the Western section

A committee appointed to receive and count the votes for candidate for County Attorney reported as follows

Whole number	[illegible]
Charles P Stetson had	37
B H Mace	28
F A Wilson	22

No choice

Second ballot reported as follows

Whole number	94
Charles P Stetson	48
B H Mace	26
F A Wilson	22

No choice

The third ballot resulted as follows

Whole number	[illegible]
Charles P Stetson	9
B H Mace	[illegible]
F A Wilson	1

Mr Stetson was declared duly nominated

On motion of Mr Mace the nomination was made unanimous

George O Whitney of Newport, was nominated by acclamation as the candidate for Clerk of Court

Thomas K Kingsbury of Bradford was nominated by acclamation, as candidate for County Commissioner

Wm A Blake of Bangor was nominated by acclamation as candidate for County Treasurer

Mr Wilson of Orono then the committee on Resolutions reported the following

Resolved That the Democracy of Penobscot now as heretofore, will maintain their position as firm and fearless defenders of the Constitution and the Government of the United States and will never flinch nor flag in the work of rebuking treason and traitors wherever found ready to do battle in its defence

Resolved That the civil war which now exists in this country is the result of a long and determined effort on the part of the Democratic party of the North and South and that the Democratic party having equally opposed the extreme views of both sections, and having at all times zealously defended the Union and the Constitution and the Government of our fathers, it is now in every responsible sense of the term a Union party, and that it is its duty and a dread sense of its warning and advice

Resolved That while we are opposed to war and most of all, to civil war—nevertheless under existing circumstances and the present state of the country we see no hope of peace but in the most vigorous prosecution of the present war—and while we would prefer at every step the olive branch to the cane hand, the sword should accompany it in the other

Resolved That we have no safer guide to follow in this dangerous crisis of the country than the political opinions and advice of the Patriot and Statesman whose name was borne on the banner of the Democracy of the Union in the late Presidential canvass and we adopt the dying words of Stephen A Douglas, that "every man must be on the side of the Union or against it," and that "there can be no neutrals in this war, there can be none but patriots or traitors."

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the nomination of Col Charles D Jameson of Oldtown for the office of Governor, and that in him we find a noble exponent of our principles, a tried and gallant leader, and a practical defender of the Constitution and the Union at the cannon's mouth, and we will use all honorable means to secure his election

Resolved, That the nominations this day made are worthy of the support of the people of this county

The resolutions were unanimously adopted

Mr C P Stetson of Bangor, being present, was called upon, and accepted the nomination of County Attorney in a brief and very handsome speech—pledging himself to act as a democrat and as a Union man

Mr Mace of Bangor was then called upon for a speech, and responded in the same patriotic spirit which animated the Convention throughout

Mr Peters of Bangor, having been notified of his nomination as a candidate for Senator, came into the Convention and accepted the nomination in some eloquent remarks, in which he took occasion to re-assert his position and that of the true democracy, as strong, hearty and unanimous in favor of maintaining the government of the country against all sentiments, and especially against the proud traitors who are now attempting to subvert it.

A Union Member of Congress in North Carolina.

Letter from a former Breckinridge Democrat.

We have received, with a request to publish, the following letter from Mr Charles H Foster, who is one of the Union members of Congress recently elected in North Carolina The letter was received by a gentleman in New York

SALISBURY, N C, Aug 10 1861

MY DEAR SIR I was elected to Congress from this State, by a large vote, on the 1st inst, that being the day designated by a statute of North Carolina, the repeal of which, together with the abrogation of all the legislative acts, as well as constitutional provisions, recognizing the Federal Government, we, the Union men of this commonwealth, consider null and void I shall claim my seat in December next, and will also other gentlemen chosen as Representatives by the loyal citizens of other districts The vote I received in my district, on the 4th of June last was thrown upon a day not named in any statute, and although in accordance with my suggestion, was not seriously looked at

A provisional government, confessing its allegiance to the Union of States, will be set on foot in North Carolina before many months. There is already a regiment of loyal North Carolinians enrolled, whose services I shall soon tender to the government From my observations for the past fortnight and more, I am convinced that a large majority of our people are in favor of adhering to the Union

Although for years a Democrat, and a supporter of Mr Breckinridge in the last Presidential canvass I was never a disunionist and my present position publicly assumed immediately after the election of Mr Lincoln, is in strict consistency with the whole record of my life As a man of Northern birth and instincts and entering the State of my adoption as a citizen of the United States and under the banner of the stars and stripes how could I, or how can I ever consistently and with any self respect repudiate the traditions of my nativity the patriotic sentiments with which my youthful privileges, whether reading Northern South and the protection of that benificent flag under whose folds I have lived every where [illegible] I have [illegible] every [illegible] the [illegible] was an American citizen [illegible] present civil birthright [illegible] to the [illegible] single state but entitled [illegible] the federal [illegible] fathers, to the rights [illegible] citizen of every State [illegible] citizenship [illegible] relinquish

[illegible] will never falter in the hour of trouble but to traitors I am [illegible] in the presence of the [illegible] of the great [illegible] and [illegible] of the South [illegible] is all for war—war [illegible] war [illegible] can be—there should be [illegible] rebellion is crushed [illegible] and receiving rewards [illegible] instructive to the people [illegible] of the South [illegible] in the party [illegible] Democrat [illegible] Union party [illegible] Union [illegible] solution of arms should or [illegible] This [illegible] opportunity [illegible] the government [illegible] upon its [illegible] this terrible crisis of our national life is past

In October last I made a speech before the Breckinridge State Convention, in Nombeg Hall at Bangor I pledged my honor as the North Carolina would not secede from the Union That pledge I have endeavored to fulfil and I shall never cease to labor until the armed occupation of her territory, accomplished by perjured men, which will need for the time the emphatic utterance of her loyalty in February shall have been overborne by the bluecoats and bayonets of the Republic We have a PEOPLE yet and the banner of the nation, one and indivisible, will wave once more over our hills and valleys

Were I now in Maine, I would say to all my Democratic friends—Union for the sake of the Union! Raise no white flag in the face of the enemy! Send on your hardy legions for the deliverance of your Southern brethren now writhing in the daily tightening coils of a tyranny which, unless now rebuked forever, may one day bind your own free limbs!

As a Union man I, for one, shall support the Administration in all its measures, till the war is over I say this with a full sense of the responsibility I assume before my constituent and the country

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
CHARLES HENRY FOSTER.

THE WORLD MAKERS. Of the rapidity with which the Polypes do their work, we have some curious proofs In forty days' harbouring at Rio Janeiro, boats were wholly destroyed, as a strait near Australia, there were formerly only twenty six islands, there are already one hundred and fifty, well recognized, and the English Admiralty believes that there are even more, and twenty years hence the whole strait, forty leagues in length, will be so completely blockaded up as to be completely unnavigable The eastern canal of Australia is three hundred and sixty leagues (one hundred and thirty seven without interruption), and that of New Caledonia one hundred and forty-five leagues, the single shoal of the Maldives is almost five hundred miles long, and the groups of isles in the Pacific are four hundred leagues long, by a hundred and fifty wide. To talk this work of the Polypes, we must add, take the banks of the Isle of France, and the [illegible] of the Red Sea, [illegible] wholly [illegible] prevent [illegible] that [illegible]

Treason by Telegraph Stopped

We learn from Mr Bedlow, Superintendent of the the Maine Telegraph Line, that an order has just been received from the government, prohibiting the transmission of any telegraphic despatches to any point within the rebel States This is a wise and necessary precaution against conspiracies between Northern and Southern traitors, and the transmission of intelligence to the rebels It should have been taken months ago

While telegraphic communication is thus cut off, it would be well for the government to exercise increased vigilance to cut off the transmission of intelligence by mail and otherwise We presume this is now done, but we have seen the envelop of a letter received about two weeks ago in New York, from an office in North Carolina It was stamped "10 cents paid," (the Southern postage,) and "3 due," (the Northern postage) If letters are still received by our post offices from those of the South, and vice versa, it is time the arrangement was stopped

Troops now in the Field.

Editor of Boston Journal—

The following estimate has been prepared from a variety of sources, and is presumed to be a close approximation to the truth—

Troops of Confederates

From Texas,	8000
Florida	20,000
Louisiana,	13,000
Mississippi	1 000
Arkansas,	10 000
Alabama,	16 000
Georgia,	21 000
South Carolina,	16 000
Virginia,	40,000
Missouri	10 000
Kentucky,	4 000
Maryland	1 000
Tennessee	30 000
	200 000
Deduct for sick and wounded	8 000
	19 000

These troops are distributed as follows—

In Eastern Virginia	80 000
Western Virginia	10 000
Missouri	65 000
New Orleans, Mobile Pensacola Savannah Apalachicola and Charleston	15 000
Tennessee,	15 000
Texas	5 000
North Carolina,	4 000
	152,000
Rebel forces in Eastern Virginia,	50 000
Number required to watch banks and the Upper Potomac	15 000
Number required to guard Manassas, Richmond Norfolk York and Fredericksburg	1 000—30,000
Largest number available to attack Washington	60 000
Estimate of U S troops, Aug 28
At and around Washington	100 000
Baltimore,	5 000
Harper's Ferry	1 000
Frederick	2,000
Fortress Monroe	6 000
Western Virginia,	20 000
Aggregate,	130 000
Missouri and Mouth of Ohio and Cairo,	65 000
In the Field	200 000
We have then in the field,	206,000
Against the first three bodies of rebel troops all in the field	153,000
An excess of more than 25 per cent.,	53 000

But we may have until within the last fort night been numerically weaker than the rebels But while the Confederate states have nearly exhausted their supply of troops, we have—

First the	206 000
And we estimate a now enlisted and preparing to take the field by September
In New England	10 000
Pennsylvania	15,000
New York	15 000
Michigan	6 000
New Jersey	5 000
Wisconsin	5 000
Illinois	10 000
Indiana,	10 000
Ohio and Cairo,	15 000
Kentucky	5 000
Iowa	5 000
Minnesota	2 000
	311 000
If to these we add for recruits entering new army regiments already offered	100 000

We may expect in September an aggregate of 411 000

To be sustained by our Navy which will have afloat by October at least 1500 cannon

If it be found advisable to add to this one third more and carry our troops up to nearly 600 000 we may rely for the 150 000 without drafting on the following States

Illinois	50 000
Indiana	15 000
Ohio	15 000
New York	50 000
Massachusetts	10 000
Other New England States	10 000
Pennsylvania	20 000
Western Virginia	5 000
Michigan	10 000
Eastern Tennessee	10 000
Iowa	5 000
Missouri	10 000
Wisconsin	5 000
California and New Mexico	5 000
Kentucky	5 000
Maryland	5 000
Kansas and Nebraska,	5 000
Recruits for Army and Navy at the West	15 000
	275 000

In the course of September we may expect to have a preponderance in force of 100 per cent over the rebels MASSACHUSETTS

HOW TO COMMENCE. One of the weakest men in New York city tells us how he commenced business He entered a store and asked if a clerk was not wanted No, in a rough tone was the answer all being too busy to bother with me, when I reflected that if they did not want a clerk they might want a laborer, but I was dressed too fine for that I went to my lodgings, put on my rough garb and the next day went into the same store and demanded if they did not want a porter and again

'No, sir' was the response when I exclaimed in despair almost

'A laborer' I will work at any wages Wages are not my object, I must have employment and I want to be useful in business.

This last remark arrested their attention and in the end I was hired as a laborer in the basement and sub cellar at a very low pay, scarcely enough to keep body and soul together In the basement and sub cellar I soon attracted the attention of the counting house and chief clerk I saved enough for my employers in little things wasted, to pay my wages ten times over, and they soon found it out. I did not let anybody about commit petty larcenies without remonstrance and threats of exposure, if remonstrance would no do I did not ask for any ten hour law If I was wanted at 8 A. M, I never growled, but told everybody to go home, and I would see everything right. I loaded off at daybreak packages for the boats or carried them myself In short, I soon became indispensible to my employers, and rose, and rose, until I became the head of the house, with money enough as you see to give me any luxury or any position a merchant can desire for himself and children in this city —Merchant's Magazine.

The following is from English papers received per the City of Washington, which brings London dates to the 14th inst.

With reference to the rumor current here that Admiral Milne commanding the British squadron off the American coast, had informed the British Admiralty that our blockade was ineffectual the London Globe has authority to state that there is no foundation for the report and that no official information on the subject had been received.

A gentleman now at Washington, and who has very recently left Richmond, says that the secession army is rapidly becoming demoralized The delay to attack, Washington is the cause of much discontent among the men Gen Johnston is anxious to undertake the duty, but Davis and the other leading men say that the time has not come yet The impression, however, is that the leaders of the rebel army are afraid to make the attempt, and that the immense army of the Federal Government will make its feasibility less every day Unless the attempt is made, and done now, the fearful odds arrayed against the rebels they think, will assure their certain destruct on EUROPEAN WAR WITH MEXICO There is good authority for the statement that the British and French governments intend to unite in the exercise of force against Mexico— Their ministers have refused further diplomatic intercourse with the Juarez government, on account of its repudiation of foreign debts, and for late outrages upon the property and persons of European residents The British and French fleets now assembling on the coast are believed to be intended for service at Vera Cruz.—New York World.

ENGLISH INTERFERENCE. The Boston Traveller says

We wish for no quarrel with England—we would do much to avoid such a quarrel—but we never could allow her to dictate how we should deal with our rebels The matter in which we are engaged is just none of her dished business, and we should tell her so in just so many words We regret that she should not be able to get all the cotton she needs, but this country is not her garden or estate, and she can't be allowed to interfere in its management We have a lot of rebels to smash, and she would do well to keep out of the way until the smashing business shall be over For her to seek to order our method of proceeding with rebels would be an effort on her part to order elections It was always on the cards that Mr Lincoln's election would lead to civil war and what would have been thought if England had declared that she would not permit him to be made President? And yet such a declaration would have been in no sense a greater outrage than that of which she was guilty when she avowed that she would regard the rebels as belligerents and though she has since declared that she will not allow the logical consequence of that avowal we ought none the less to be prepared for another change of position on her part She will change again and again with the shifting circumstances of the war if they should be of a various character— We hear much of the friendship of the English people for the Union men of this country and we are of opinion that that people have no desire to aid the slaveocracy, but if the English Government should make war on us, what could the people do but support the war? We must depend for peace, not upon English friendship but upon our own power We should be prepared to fight, and there would be no fighting We are now at war because no preparations were made by the Federal Government either to prevent war a occurrence or to fight with effect— Had the Buchanan government done its duty from the beginning of the rebellion, there would have been no domestic contest of magnitude, but it did nothing, and we are in for a fight that must bear hard upon our means in every way

The St. Louis Republican, after commending the energy and skill of Gen Fremont, gives the following solemn warning

"To those citizens of the State who are engaged in the suicidal policy of aiding and abetting the invaders of Missouri, we warn them of the certain defeat that awaits them if they persist in their course The Union men of the State are arousing themselves to defend their homes and firesides and the Grand Army of the West already exceeding fifty thousand men is increasing in power and number daily With such an army under the command of Major Gen Fremont, aided by officers of eminent skill it must be manifest to the enemies of the government that the doom of our invaders and all their aiders and abettors found in arms in this State will be sealed in a few short weeks

We and all persons to pause in their mad career ere it is too late The interests connections and wealth of Missouri all demand that she should remain a member of the old Government with their the Southern Confederacy be established or not

[Extracts from a letter from Lieut Col Marshall of the Maine 4th, dated at Alexandria, Aug 14th]

Our government endeavors to treat its dead fairly well and low with the immense resources and lavishly thrown upon it the wants of the army are so well cared for in an auspicious

When I notice that part zens in our own State will sacrifice the loyal and patriotic cause in which we are engaged to serve personal or party ends "When we left our homes to put down rebel on and to risk our lives, perhaps in defence of the best government on earth WE HOPED NO FIRE IN THE REAR WOULD ASSAIL US—that we left behind us to give aid and comfort to the enemy

If there are men in Maine who desire the success of the rebels all we ask is to have them show their courage and honesty by openly joining them We want such in the front and not in the rear

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
OR PROTEIN
SOLUTION OF PROTOXIDE OF IRON COMBINED.
This well known Remedy has been used extensively and with great success for
DYSPEPSIA,
Or Impaired and Imperfect Digestion;
FOR THE CONSEQUENT
DETERIORATION OF THE BLOOD;
AND FOR THE FOLLOWING
FORMS OF DISEASE,
Most of which originate in
DYSPEPSIA:

LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, NEURALGIA and NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, LOSS OF APPETITE, HEADACHE, LANGUOR and DEPRESSION of SPIRITS, CARBUNCLES and BOILS PILES, SCURVY, AFFECTIONS OF THE SKIN, CONSUMPTIVE TENDENCIES, BRONCHITIS, DISEASES PECULIAR TO FEMALES, & ALL COMPLAINTS ACCOMPANIED BY GENERAL DEBILITY, AND REQUIRING A TONIC or ALTERATIVE MEDICINE.

Note.—The failure of IRON as a remedy for Dyspepsia, is the state of the blood, and the numerous diseases caused thereby, has arisen from the want of such a preparation of Iron as shall enter the stomach in a PROTOXIDE state, and assimilate at once with the blood. This want the PERUVIAN SYRUP supplies, and it does so in the only form in which it is possible for Iron to enter the circulation. For this reason the PERUVIAN SYRUP often radically CURES diseases in which other preparations of Iron and other medicines have been found to be of no avail.

Certificate of A. A. HAYES, M. D., of Boston.
It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron are lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.
In the PERUVIAN SYRUP this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown, and this solution may replace all the prota-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.
A. A. HAYES, Assayer to the State of Mass.
16 Boylston street, Boston.

Certificate of Jas. R. Chilton, M. D., of N. York.
It is well known that it has been found very difficult to preserve in a PALATABLE form, for a desirable length of time, compounds of the Protoxide of Iron.—The "Peruvian Syrup" I am pleased to say, accomplishes this desirable end.
JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.
26 Prince Street, New York, Aug. 8, 1859.

Certificate from well known Citizens of Boston.
The undersigned, having experienced the beneficial effects of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate from well known Citizens of N. York.
New York, Nov. 17th, 1859.
The experience which we have had of the PERUVIAN SYRUP and the evidence which has been exhibited to us of its great success in the cure of many diseases, satisfies us that it is a medicinal agent of remarkable power and deserving the attention of invalids.

From Hon. Levi Underwood, Lieutenant Governor of Vermont.
Messrs. E. B. MAGOON & Co.—I have used your WEEKS' MAGIC COMPOUND for severe colds and sore throats, and it has proved an efficient remedy. It is a valuable accession to the list of remedies for colds, coughs, &c. I am, &c., yours,
LEVI UNDERWOOD.
Burlington, Oct. 8th, 1860
From Hon. Joseph Poland, State Senator of Vt.
I have used your WEEKS' MAGIC COMPOUND in my family, and have never found any remedy so effectual in curing coughs and sore throat, and other diseases of the lungs. JOSEPH POLAND.
Montpelier, Oct. 1, 1860
From Hon. Timothy Redfield, late State Senator of Vt
By using your WEEKS' MAGIC COMPOUND a short time, I was entirely cured of one of the severest and most obstinate colds upon my lungs that I ever experienced. I know of no remedy equal to it for coughs and lung complaints generally.
TIMOTHY P. REDFIELD.
Montpelier, Oct 13, 1860
From Rev. E. B. Smith, D. D., Principal of New Hampton Institution.
The MAGIC COMPOUND which you furnished me last spring, when I was suffering most severely from the effects of a long continued cold upon my lungs, acted like a charm. The first night after taking it I coughed less and slept better than for weeks before, and the one of it finally removed the difficulty entirely. I should use it again in preference to any medicine I have tried when similarly affected. Yours truly, E. B. SMITH.

FOR all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the receipt of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.
AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.
